

Stella Cho

Stella Cho is the Associate Pastor of Families.

Stella grew up in South Korea as the fifth generation of a Methodist family. She studied Methodist theology in Korea. In 2020, she came to the United States to attend Perkins School of Theology at SMU, driven by a vision to spread God's word throughout the world. After completing her Master of Divinity, she was ordained as a Provisional Elder in the North Texas Conference in June 2024. In Korea, she served in children's ministry for over ten years and continued this work in some Korean American churches in Dallas. Additionally, she interned at the SMU Chaplain's Office, serving as a chaplain for SMU undergraduate residents for three years.

Rev. Cho believes that every moment is a gift and grace from God, so she enjoys taking photos and videos and loves learning and experiencing new things.
